

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

No. 06-20185

Plaintiff,

HON. VICTORIA A. ROBERTS

v.

D-2 MARCUS LAMONT
FREEMAN, a/k/a "Wood,"

Offense: 18 U.S.C. §924(j), Killing
a Person While Engaged in an Offense
Punishable Under Section 924(c)

Defendant.

Maximum Penalty: Life Imprisonment

Maximum Fine: $250,000.00

Rule 11 Plea Agreement

Pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, defendant
MARCUS LAMONT FREEMAN and the government agree as follows:

1. Guilty Plea

A. Count of Conviction

Defendant will enter a plea of guilty to Count One of the Third Superseding Information, which charges him with Killing a Person While Engaged in an Offense Punishable Under Section 924(c), in violation of 18
U.S.C. §924(j).

B. Elements of Offense:

The elements of Count One of the Third Superseding Information are as follows:

1. That defendant committed the predicate murder-for-hire conspiracy as charged in Count One of the Second Superseding Indictment, dated November 14, 2013;
2. That defendant used or carried a firearm during and in relation to the murder-for-hire conspiracy; and
3. That in the course of using or carrying that firearm, defendant discharged the firearm and thereby murdered Leonard Jerrard Day.

The elements of the predicate murder-for-hire conspiracy alleged in Count One of the Second Superseding Indictment are as follows:

1. That two or more persons conspired, or agreed, to commit the crime of use of interstate commerce facilities in the commission of a murder-for hire; and
2. That the defendant knowingly and voluntarily joined the conspiracy.

C. Factual Basis for Guilty Plea

The following facts are a sufficient and accurate basis for defendant's guilty plea:

On or about November 10, 2005 and thereafter, MARCUS LAMONT FREEMAN knowingly and voluntarily joined a conspiracy to use facilities of interstate commerce in the commission of a murder-for-hire. Specifically, FREEMAN joined other conspirators and searched in or about the Eastern District of Michigan for Leonard Jerrard Day in response to an offer of United States currency in exchange for the killing of Leonard Jerrard Day. FREEMAN and his co-conspirators used facilities of interstate commerce, namely, cellular telephones, in the commission of their search to find and kill Day. On December 20, 2005, in the course of the murder-for-hire conspiracy, FREEMAN murdered Leonard Jerrard Day outside of a residence on Kilbourne Street in Detroit, Michigan, by knowingly and intentionally discharging a firearm aimed at Day, causing Day's death.

2. Sentencing Guidelines

A. Standard of Proof

The Court will find sentencing factors by a preponderance of the evidence.

B. Agreed Guideline Range

There are no sentencing guideline disputes. Except as provided below, the defendant's guideline range is 292-365 months, as set forth on the attached worksheets. If the Court finds:

1. That defendant's criminal history category is higher than reflected on the attached worksheets, or

2. That the offense level should be higher because, after pleading guilty, defendant made any false statement to or withheld information from his probation officer; otherwise demonstrated a lack of acceptance of responsibility for his offense; or obstructed justice or committed any crime, and if any such finding results in a guideline range higher than 292-365 months, the higher guideline range becomes the agreed range. However, if the Court finds that defendant is a career offender, an armed career criminal, or a repeat and dangerous sex offender as defined under the sentencing guidelines or other federal law, and that finding is not already reflected in the attached worksheets, this paragraph does not authorize a corresponding increase in the agreed range.

Neither party may take a position concerning the applicable guidelines that is different than any position of that party as reflected in the attached worksheets, except as necessary to the Court's determination regarding subsections 1) and 2), above.

3. Sentence

The Court will impose a sentence pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3553, and in doing so must consider the sentencing guideline range. The parties stipulate and agree that the appropriate sentence in this case should be a sentence of 180 months.

A. Imprisonment

Pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(C), the sentence of imprisonment in this case shall not exceed 180 months.

B. Supervised Release

A term of supervised release, if imposed, follows the term of imprisonment. There is no agreement on supervised release. In other words, the Court may impose any term of supervised release up to the statutory maximum term, which in this case is three years. The agreement concerning imprisonment described above in Paragraph 3A does not apply to any term of imprisonment that results from any later revocation of supervised release.

C. Special Assessment

Defendant will pay a special assessment of $100.00 and must provide the government with a receipt for the payment before sentence is imposed.

D. Fine

There is no agreement as to fines.

E. Restitution

Restitution is not applicable to this case.

4. Other Charges

If the Court accepts this agreement, the government will dismiss all remaining charges in this case.

5. Each Party's Right to Withdraw from This Agreement

The government may withdraw from this agreement if the defendant seeks a sentence outside of 180 months imprisonment, or if the Court sentences defendant outside of that range. Defendant may withdraw from this agreement, and may withdraw his guilty plea, if the Court decides to impose a sentence higher than the maximum allowed by Part 3. This is the only reason for which defendant may withdraw from this agreement. The Court shall advise defendant that if he does not withdraw his guilty plea under this circumstance, the Court may impose a sentence greater than the maximum allowed by Part 3.

6. Appeal Waiver

The defendant waives any right he may have to appeal his conviction on any grounds. If the sentence imposed is no more than 180 months, defendant also waives any right he may have to appeal his sentence on any grounds. If the defendant's sentence of imprisonment is at least 180 months, the government waives any right it may have to appeal defendant's sentence.

7. Consequences of Withdrawal of Guilty Plea or Vacation of Conviction

If defendant is allowed to withdraw his guilty plea or if any conviction entered pursuant to this agreement is vacated, the Court shall, on the government's request, reinstate any charges that were dismissed as part of this agreement. If additional charges are filed against defendant within six months after the date the order vacating defendant's conviction or allowing him to withdraw his guilty plea becomes final, which charges relate directly or indirectly to the conduct underlying the guilty plea or to any conduct reflected in the attached worksheets, defendant waives his right to challenge the additional charges on the ground that they were not filed in a timely manner, including any claim that they were filed after the limitations period expired.

8. Parties to Plea Agreement

Unless otherwise indicated, this agreement does not bind any government agency except the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Michigan.

9. Scope of Plea Agreement

This agreement, which includes all documents that it explicitly incorporates, is the complete agreement between the parties. This agreement supersedes all other promises, representations, understandings and agreements between the parties concerning the subject matter of this plea agreement that were made at any time before the guilty plea is entered in court. Thus, no oral or written promises made by the government to defendant or to the attorney for the defendant at any time before defendant pleads guilty are binding except to the extent they have been explicitly incorporated into this agreement.

This agreement also does not prevent any civil or administrative actions against defendant, or any forfeiture claim against any property, by the United States or any other party.

10. Acceptance of Agreement by Defendant

This plea offer expires unless it has been received, fully signed, in the Office of the United States Attorney by 12:00 P.M. on Friday, October 2, 2015. The government reserves the right to modify or revoke this offer at any time before defendant pleads guilty.
